There are a lot of great Saudi people. Important to differentiate between governments and citizens.

> Hi Paul. I am a 17 year old who was born and raised in Saudi Arabia. My house is 2 hours away from the grand Mosque in Mecca. I started watching your videos 1 year ago and I hated you just like any member of the community. After the Orlando shooting, I decided to watch a few of your videos with an open mind and I became a big fan of you and info wars. I became a bit vocal in my school and with my family about religious and political issues and this landed me in trouble a couple of times and scared me to death. However, I am very thankful to you for inspiring me and a lot of others. Believe it or not, you have a significant number of fans in the Middle East. Keep up the good job man.

ISIS jihadists are DELIGHTED at the anti-Trump left's efforts to divide America.

> Banks, who has declared her support for Trump in the past, lashed back by attacking Rihanna and others who have taken aim against the president. Just now

Where were the protests when Obama attacked Libya the war that caused the refugee crisis?

You a supported it.

Where were the protests when Obama & Hillary armed jihadists in Syria, a civil war that exacerbated the refugee crisis?

You said nothing.

Where were the protests when Obama banned Iraqi refugees for TWICE the amount of time Trump did?

You didn't even know about it

Isn't it amazing how you only protest when there's an opportunity to virtue signal about it?

You did and said FUCK ALL when Obama dropped 100,000 bombs on Muslim countries

Saudi Arabia has been banning Muslim refugees for years.

Where's the outrage?

This is an EMPTY tent city in Saudi Arabia.
It has power, plumbing and air conditioning.
It could comfortably house 3 million refugees right now.
Before you lecture me on refugees, lecture their neighbours.

NOT a #MuslimBan.

> So, what did Trump do? Did he implement his promised Muslim ban? No, far from it. He backed down dramatically from his campaign promises and instead signed an executive order dominated mainly by moderate refugee restrictions and temporary provisions aimed directly at limiting immigration from jihadist conflict zones.

Remember when ISIS called for recruiting left-wing activists because they broadly share the same goals? #D sruptJ20

A growing population of left-winged activists (people who are against; human/animal abuses, Zionism, and Austerity measures etc) look upto the Muslims as a force who are strong enough to fight against the injustices of the world . t seems from the article below that many of these people (who are sometimes part of Anonymous and Anarchy movements) will ally with the Muslims to fight against the neo-Nazis' and rich politicians. They will give intelligence, share weapons and do undercover work for the Muslims to pave the way for the conquest of Rome

How will this happen?

If you have ever been at a pro-Palestine / anti-Israel protest, you will see many activists who are not even Muslims who are supportive of what Muslims are calling for (the fall of Zionism) It is most likely here that connections between Muslims and Left-wing activists will be made. and a portion from them will realise that protests are not effective, and that armed combat is the alternative So they will start to work together in small cells of groups to fight and sabotage against the 'financial elite'

Dear mainstream media; This is why you suck and no one trusts you any more.

INDEPENDENT

Call Jo Cox's murder what it was: an act of political terrorism committed by a white fascist

The creeping use of the term 'alt-right' is lending a soupçon of cool to a pernicious ideology. This is why language matters

Calling the Facebook Live abuse video a Black Lives Matter kidnap is racist

Though there is no material link between the group and the Chicago attackers, their shared race is apparently enough to make each of them guilty of the others' crimes

This.

By the EU's own stats 60% of those seeking asylum are economic migrants as this article makes clear, 72% of those are young men below the age of 24. We are fundamentally changing the demographic makeup of Europe and importing what is in many cases people from cultures utterly inimical to those values that I am sure most of the FT's readers hold dear. Even amongst multi-generational UK muslims the social attitudes are shocking, check out some of the opinion polling on homosexuality, the role of women, desire for Sharia etc. We are entering a post-liberal world ushered in largely by the wilful refusal of liberal cultural elites to accept any blame for the logical outcomes of the policies they have been pushing for decades. I should also add that these very same liberal elites have done so from ivory towers, moneyed neighbourhoods, educational ghettos to move and generate life options etc, and have largely avoided the demographic, cultural and social disintegration that has accompanied their policies.

Washington Post caught pushing fake news AGAIN, forced to apologize.

The Post initially reported, incorrectly, that the country's electric grid had been penetrated through a Vermont utility. After Burlington Electric released its statement saying that the potentially compromised laptop had not been connected to the grid, The Post immediately corrected its article and later added an editor's note explaining the change.

More cultural enrichment from Sweden.

Hey Paul. My name is Johan and I'm a Swedish student in my teens. The buildings where I go to school in was shared amongst 3 different schools. Well that was up until this August when a migrant school was added. This makes it 4 different schools. It's been pretty crazy in the school cafetena roughly 50-60% of people are migrants now if not even more. Sometimes it's literally like a daycare. These migrants are running around pushing each other around in something similar to a shopping carts inside the school. The poor teachers have to take care of these giant children whom look like they are 20-26 years old at least. I don't know exactly how many of them act this way but it's enough to be noticeable. These migrants don't seem to respect the teachers and not even the law. They are smoking on school area which is illegal according to Tobaks lag 1993:581. I've seen the teachers run out and tell them to go somewhere else and they laugh it off and continue smoking whenever she leaves. Also on our school website our teachers put out a PSA about fires being set on the school's premises and students smoking on the school area like anyone in my school does that. My school is filled with typical leftist feminists. Recently the school tried to enforce a rule which would make name badges mandatory since apparently people that aren't students apparently hang around inside the buildings. I've seen students from my school wearing these badges since if you did don't you can be kicked off of the premises. I have not seen one migrant wear such a name badge. Very far. My school is set to move to another filled school to partly make room for more migrants. I also saw this paper in the school saying 'New in Sweden?' Do you wanna know more about the Swedish society? Information everyone! Like it's optional if you wanna know basic things like abusing your wife or beating up homosexuals is unacceptable in Sweden. Pretty important things on this site. But it's presented like it's optional extra information which is pretty insane. I suppose I'm a public internet figure since I have a very very small Youtube channel which I'm trying to grow. Hopefully any of Everyone is depressed now. You don't have a right to be happy. Happiness is earned by the way you live your life.

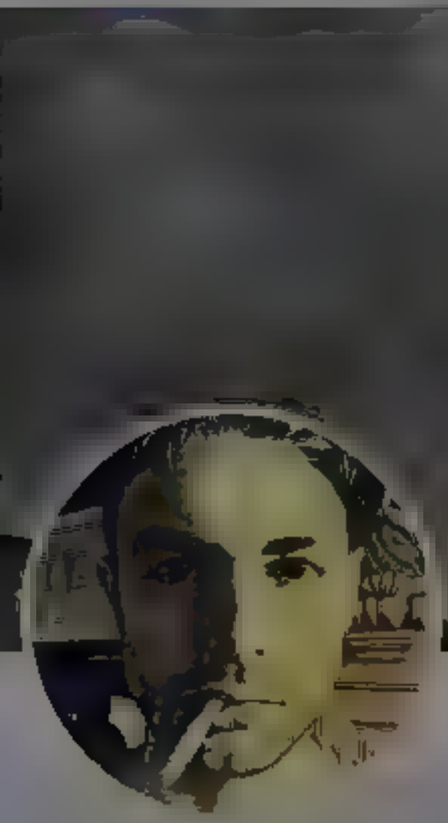
depressants and then called



There is something to be said here about the word "depression," which has almost entirely eliminated the word and even the concept of unhappiness from modern life. Of the thousands of patients I have seen, only two or three have ever claimed to be unhappy; all the rest have said they were depressed. This semantic shift is deeply significant, for it implies that dissatisfaction with life is itself pathological, a medical condition, which it is the responsibility of the doctor to alleviate by medical means. Everyone has a right to health; depression is unhealthy; therefore everyone has a right to be happy (the opposite of being depressed). This idea in turn implies that one's state of mind, or one's mood, is or should be independent of the way that one lives one's life, a belief that must deprive human existence of all meaning, radically disconnecting reward from conduct.

A ridiculous pas de deux between doctor and patient ensues: the patient pretends to be ill, and the doctor pretends to cure him. In the process, the patient is willfully blinded to the conduct that inevitably caused his misery in the first place. I have therefore come to see that one of the most important tasks of the doctor today is the disavowal of his own power and responsibility. The patient's notion that he is ill stands in the way of his understanding of the situation, without which moral change cannot take place. The doctor who pretends to treat is an obstacle to this change, blinding rather than enlightening

Democrats aren't defending American democracy from foreign meddling, they are a clear and present danger to it.

Two possibilities.

Paul Joseph Watson

Possibility A)

Globalism is being rejected across the west. Anti-establishment populism is rising because ordinary people are sick of being ignored by the political class.

Decades of globalist policies that have only benefited the elite while lowering living standards for the working & middle classes have created a clamor for genuine change

Brexit, Trump, Italy & the rise of populist parties in Germany, Holland, France & Sweden are all a manifestation of this sentiment.

Possibility B)

None of this is happening. The real cause is "Russian hacking"

After Islamic attack: Not all Muslims! Islamophobia!

After white supremacist attack: All white people must answer for this!

ISLAM'S PR AGENCY: THE AMERICAN MED A 135

It took the media all of six seconds to smoke out the motive for Dylann Roof's massacre. There was no confusion about the motive in that case. It was racism—deep, immutable racism. And all Americans were guilty. At least we could finally have that national conversation about race we've all been looking forward to. Karen Attiah wrote in The Washington Post that the attack served as a "reminder that racism and white supremacy continue to course through America's veins." An op-ed in The New York Times complained about the "rush to dissociate other white Americans from his violence."[40]

The Charleston shooting was the first white-on-black mass murder in American at least a century, going back to the Klan days. How many Americans have to be slaughtered by Muslims in the first two decades of the twenty-first century before—to paraphrase The New York Times' op-ed page—we stop dissociating other Muslims from Muslim violence?

Media: That's the wrong lesson.

The main lesson we were supposed to take from 9/11 was: Don't be mean to Muslims! The main lesson from Fort Hood was: It was some American's fault for scraping a bumper sticker off Nidal Hasan's car. The main lesson from the murderous attack on our embassy in Benghazi was: It was an American filmmaker's fault. The main lesson from the Times Square bombing was: We think it was a white guy. The main lesson of the Boston Marathon was: It's our fault for not passing an amnesty bill that

I'm going to start a petition for a second vote in Richmond. #RichmondPark

Brendan O'Neill

[illegible]

Anti-Brexit Lib Dem wins by-election in Richmond. But how can we be sure the people of Richmond really knew what they were voting for? Maybe they're "low information". Maybe they were made poisonously anti-Brexit by Guardian and Economist propaganda. Maybe they're so hooked on Newsnight and Radio 4 that they can no longer think for themselves. Perhaps they were brainwashed by the demagogues Tony Blair and Richard Branson. Can we really trust such people to make big, important decisions like who should sit in parliament? We need a second vote. Give them another chance to get it right. The country must be saved from their ignorance.

European Muslims allying with Left-wing Activists:

A growing population of left-winged activists (people who are against, human/animal abuses, Zionism, and Austerity measures etc) look upto the Muslims as a force who are strong enough to fight against the injustices of the world. It seems from the article below that many of these people (who are sometimes part of Anonymous and Anarchy movements) will ally with the Muslims to fight against the neo-Nazis' and rich politicians. They will give intelligence, share weapons and do undercover work for the Muslims to pave the way for the conquest of Rome.

The Washington Post published a fake news story that has been completely debunked.

Mainstream media is fake news.

Two of the most discredited reports from the election season illustrate the point: a Slate article claiming that a private server had been located linking the Trump Organization and a Russian bank which, like the current Post story, had been shopped around and rejected by multiple media outlets, and a completely deranged rant by Newsweek's Kurt Eichenwald claiming that Putin had ordered emails in the WikiLeaks release to be doctored, both of which were uncritically shared and tweeted by hundreds of journalists to tens of thousands of people, if not more.

The Post itself, now posing as warriors against "fake news", published an article in September that treated with great seriousness the claim that Hillary Clinton collapsed on 9/11 day because she was poisoned by Putin. And that's to say nothing of the paper's disgraceful history of convincing Americans that Saddam was building non-existent nuclear weapons and had cultivated a vibrant alliance with Al Qaeda. As is so often the case, those who mostly loudly warn of "fake news" from others are themselves the most aggressive disseminators of it.

Hey @cra gt mberg, your fake news propaganda piece got completely debunked, now you're refusing to face the consequences.

> WHO EXACTLY IS BEHIND PROPORNOT where it gets its funding and whether or not it is tied to any governments is a complete mystery. The Intercept also sent inquiries to the Post's Craig Timberg asking these questions, and asking whether he thinks it is fair to label left-wing news sites like Truthout "Russian propaganda outlets." Timberg replied "I'm sorry, I can't comment about stories I've written for the Post."
> As is so often the case, journalists – who constantly demand transparency from everyone else – refuse to provide even the most basic levels for themselves. When subjected to scrutiny, they reflexively adopt the language of the most secrecy-happy national security agencies. We do not comment on what we do.

Criticizing U.S. foreign policy or being critical of Hillary Clinton makes you "fake news" according to the Washington Post & @propornot.

The group combats outright defamation by slandering obviously legitimate news sites as propaganda tools of the kremlin

One of the most egregious examples is the group's inclusion of Naked Capitalism, the widely respected left wing site run by Wall Street critic Yves Smith. That site was named by Time Magazine as one of the best 25 Best Financial Blogs in 2011 and by Wired Magazine as a crucial site to follow for finance and Smith has been featured as a guest on programs such as PBS' Bill Moyers Show. Yet this cowardly group of anonymous suited dorks, protected by the Washington Post, has now placed them on a blacklist of Russian disinformation.

The group eschews alternative media outlets like these and instead recommends that readers rely solely on establishment friendly publications like NPR, the BBC, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, Buzzfeed and VICE. That is because a key part of the group's definition for "Russian propaganda outlet" is criticizing U.S. foreign policy.

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 26, 2016

Statement by the President on the Passing of Fidel Castro

At this time of Fidel Castro's passing, we extend a hand of friendship to the Cuban people. We know that this moment fills Cubans in Cuba and in the United States with powerful emotions, recalling the countless ways in which Fidel Castro altered the course of individual lives, families, and of the Cuban nation. History will record and judge the enormous impact of this singular figure on the people and world around him.

For nearly six decades, the relationship between the United States and Cuba was marked by discord and profound political disagreements. During my presidency, we have worked hard to put the past behind us, pursuing a future in which the relationship between our two countries is defined not by our differences but by the many things that we share as neighbors and friends: bonds of family, culture, commerce, and common humanity. This engagement includes the contributions of Cuban Americans, who have done so much for our country and who care deeply about their loved ones in Cuba.

Today, we offer condolences to Fidel Castro's family, and our thoughts and prayers are with the Cuban people. In the days ahead, they will recall the past and also look to the future. As they do, the Cuban people must know that they have a friend and neighbor in the United States of America.

My comments on Reddit CEO editing people's posts.

thesun co uk/news/2252970/n ...

Paul Joseph Watson editor-at-large at the website InfoWars, told The Sun Online that prominent webs tes and social networks "routinely" suppressed right wing views

Millions of Donald Trump supporters watched British firebrand Watson's v deos during the e ection campaign and he played a key role in break ng stories including the Hillary C nton heal th scare

"Reddit is potent a ly even worse than Twitter went it comes to censoring perfectly legit mate d scuss on," he to d us

"The site routine y removes threads that are damag ng to eft-wing narratives and prevents them from go ng v ral," he claimed

"The fact that her CEO is now spend ng hours ed t ng ind vidua posts s another fasc nating ins ght nto the control freak behaviour that leftists exh bit on a regu ar bas s

"In recent months, companies like Reddit, Twitter and Facebook have made it clear that they do not stand on the side of free speech, and have instead decided to become echo chambers for soc a justice warriors

"This is a dreadfu business move and w l eventually lead to their failure"

You seem to have confused yourself that "feminist" is a gender. The significant majority of women don't identify as feminists.

Now we know the left's love for democracy was all a ruse.

Brendan O'Neill

So now we know. Now we know that feminists don't actually like women and think many of them are stupid and selfish. Now we know the commentariat doesn't care for the working class and instead views them as the brutish disturber of decent politics. Now we know democracy is not a highly prized idea among Western liberals, however much they might have gushed over that film about the Suffragettes, as some of them now wonder out loud if we should have an IQ test for voting or leave really big decisions to experts. Now we know that, for all the focus groups and polls and meet-a-pleb initiatives the clapped-out political class has pursued in recent years, it doesn t actually give a hoot what ordinary people think, and would rather not hear it. Ever.

I'm anti-Trump, but I'm loving the clarity his victory has brought to political life. Everyone's pretensions evaporated overnight. Ugliness exposed, elitism unveiled. Brilliant. More of this, please.

Email I sent to @mashable after they accused me of "advocating mass murder". @ColinDaileda mashable com/2016/11/14/a t ...

watson-paul3@sky.com

in your article at http://mashable com/2016/11 14/a t-right-twitter-is-emboldened-and-not-go ng-away/# - your writer claims that "advocated for mass-murder in the aftermath of the election " In reality was clearly quoting a tweet which expressed fear that Donald Trump would kill disabled people

Not only was I not advocating mass murder, the tweet that I quoted didn't even advocate mass murder In fact t expressed the fear that mass murder would take place

This is ncredibly sloppy journa sm and a clear example of iber a f I were to pursue it lega ly This claim is incredibly damag ng to my character and could even prompt police nvestigation f it was taken seriously am demanding a fu retraction and an apology to be added to your article and for the offend ng portion of the article to be removed Peaceful liberal.

I have spent the last five days meditating on Trump's election. Upon consideration, I believe this is a call to violence. I felt the call to violence in the 60's and I feel it now again. This attack on liberty and tolerance will not be solved by appeasement. Obama tried that for eight years. We should finance those who support violence resistance. We should be willing to take arms. Like Old John Brown, I am willing to battle with my children. Alt right nut jobs swagger violence. It's time to actualize that violence, Like by Civil War Michigan predecessors I choose to stand with the black, the brown and the oppressed.

Loathesome EU dictators panicked by Trump victory.

Boris Johnson has snubbed an emergency EU foreign ministers' meeting called to discuss Donald Trump's shock US election victory.

The move highlights the widening gulf between London and the continent over how to respond to the new US administration.

Earlier, a senior German politician warned Theresa May was "delusional" if she believed the incoming Republican administration would give the UK a good trade deal.

That's strange, Harry Reid, because all I've seen over the last 48 hours is Trump supporters being violently attacked.

"I have heard more stories n the past 48 hours of Americans living in fear of their own government and their fel ow Americans than I can remember hearing in five decades in po itics " he said

"If Trump wants to ro l back the tide of hate he un easheď," Reid concluded "he has a tremendous amount of work to do and he must begin immediately "

Obama, who dismissed vote rigging as a conspiracy theory, only concerned about it when it impacts Democrats.

> Mass purging of black Democrats from voter rolls and African Americans' low early voting turnout is raising fresh concerns for Hillary Clinton. On a recent swing through North Carolina, Barack Obama drew attention to Grace Bell Hardison, a 100-year-old black woman whose voter registration was challenged in her home of Beaufort County in what officials called an effort to "clear up" the voting rolls. Of the list of 138 purged voters that included Hardison, 92 were black and registered Democrats. "That didn't happen by accident," Obama said. "There was a time when systematically denying black folks the right to vote was considered normal as well."

Assange: Trump will not be permitted by the establishment to win.

But Assange dismissed the prospect of Trump, who is behind in the polls, winning as unlikely - and not necessarily due to his standing with the electorate.

"My analysis is that Trump would not be permitted to win. Why do I say that? Because he has had every establishment off his side. Trump does not have one establishment, maybe with the exception of the Evangelicals. If you can call them an establishment," said Assange. "Banks, intelligence, arms companies, foreign money, etc, are all united behind Hillary Clinton. And the media as well. Media owners, and the journalists themselves."

Republicans have cast about 17,000 more early votes than Democrats in Florida.

Six days before Election Day in 2012 Democrats in Florida had cast about 39,000 more votes than Republicans. Today six days before Election Day 2016, Republicans have cast about 17,000 more votes than Democrats.

We can parse the numbers in terms of whether Republicans have banked more voters certain to vote anyway, or whether it's fair to compare 2012's longer early vote period to the shorter one four years ago. The bottom line though is that Democrats in Florida so far are performing worse than expected and Republicans better.

It's going to be close.

It really makes you think.

> Help Paul, they specifically wrote the words "vote Trump" on the black church to hijack the search results on Google, in the last few days "vote Trump" was very high in the google searches, way higher than "vote hillary", so they enacted this false flag and deliberately used THOSE TWO words to taint the results. The only way to counter it is (I think) to make positive/neutral articles using VOTE TRUMP in the title. Reddit thread with pic of search results >

Head of DOJ investigation into Huma's emails gives Podesta a heads up on Hillary email hearing. #PodestaEmails26 wikileaks.org/podesta-emails .

From: Peter Kadzik <peterkadzik@gmail.com>
Date: Tuesday, May 19, 2015
Subject: Heads up
To: John Podesta <john.podesta@gmail.com>

There is a HJC oversight hearing today where the head of our Civil Division will testify. Likely to get questions on State Department emails. Another filing in the FOIA case went in last night or will go in this am that indicates it will be awhile (2016) before the State Department posts the emails.

NYPD Just Raided Hillary's Property! What They Found Will RUIN HER LIFE

You've probably heard by now that NYPD obtained Anthony Weiner and Huma Abedin's home devices as part of an device. Hillary and Bill are directly implicated in a MASSIVE child sex trafficking ring along with their friend, and convicted pedophile, Jeffrey Epstein. (See Below)

" It's much more vile and serious than classified material on Weiner's device. The emails DETAIL the trips made by Weiner, Bill and Hillary on their pedophile billionaire friend's plane, the Lolita Express."
"We're talking an international child enslavement and sex ring"
These claims were backed up by Epstein's private Jet and allegedly visited Epstein's sex slave island. Now that Hillary has also been directly implicated, the media cannot ignore this any longer!

Metadata shows thousands of emails sent to/from Clinton email server on cyber-pedo Weiner's computer. Not good.
wsj.com/articles/lapto ...

> Metadata found on the laptop used by former Rep. Anthony Weiner and his estranged wife Huma Abedin, a close Clinton aide, suggests there may be thousands of emails sent to or from the private server that Mrs. Clinton used while she was secretary of state, according to people familiar with the matter. It will take weeks, at a minimum, to determine whether those messages are work-related from the time Ms. Abedin served with Mrs. Clinton at the State Department, how many are duplicates of emails already reviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and whether they include either classified information or important new evidence in the Clinton email probe.

Bob Creamer (helped organize anti-Trump violence) is "close to Robby Mook" (Clinton campaign manager). #PodestaEmails23

Subject: FW: I want to talk to you about Hillary s campaign tomorrow

Hey Neera,

Just wanted to pass along this note I sent to Bob Creamer, who as you may know is consulting for the DNC and is close to Robby Mook. Wanted to pass it along to you as well, hoping you won t take offense because I feel some urgency about this. You and Podesta are a great bridge to the DC, more establishment oriented progressive world, but I just feel like the campaign is making a mistake not doing stronger outreach to grassroots/netroots progressives And while I don't think it will cause them to lost the primary, I do worry it makes everything tougher in that process, and it makes bringing everyone in (and getting them excited) after Bernie loses that much harder.

Love trolling the mainstream media. 😆

The Daily Beast repeatedly asked Watson if he had time to be interviewed on the phone.

"No, I don't. I'd rather boil my own nuts in a pan of steaming hot water," Watson responded via email. "If you'd have been honest in the first email and admitted it was a hit piece, I would have done it. This is why no one trusts the media. You suck, you lie and you mislead people. You're dishonest, smarmy and two faced."

The Daily Beast then asked if he didn't "want [his] readers to know information that you can prove was incorrect."
